5. Brief description of the subject and syllabus

5.1. Brief description of the subject

This course for upper-intermediate and advanced level students is aimed at improving your written and oral skills in professional settings in both English and Spanish.

The syllabus is designed to develop bilingual communication skills tailored for professional and multicultural environments. It focuses on enhancing fluency and accuracy in both languages, emphasizing vocabulary, grammar, and expressions relevant to business, academic, and workplace contexts.

Students practice both formal and informal oral and written communication, including presentations, meetings, emails, reports, and proposals. The course also fosters cross-cultural competence by exploring communication styles and cultural nuances in English- and Spanish-speaking regions. Critical thinking and rhetorical strategies are developed to support persuasive and effective communication in problem-solving and decision-making scenarios. Finally, students engage in real-world applications through simulations, role-plays, and case studies, preparing them for bilingual job interviews, networking, and international collaboration.
